

ALBERTA INSTITUTE OF AGROLOGISTS

The following degree, applied degree, and diploma programs offered within Alberta are eligible for automatic approval for registration with the Agrology profession in Alberta. These programs meet the National Educational Entrance Standard for the Agrology profession across Canada.

Programs not on this list may be approved for registration following a review of the course credits obtained. Such programs may require additional educational upgrading to meet the National Educational Entrance Standard for the Agrology profession.

Four-year Baccalaureate Degree Programs
Mount Royal University Degree Program Approved for Registration as an Agrologist in Training (AIT)
Degree	Major
B.Sc in Environmental Science
University of Alberta Degree Programs Approved for Registration as an Agrologist in Training (AIT)
Degree	Major
B.Sc in Agriculture	Animal Science
B.Sc in Agriculture	Sustainable Agricultural Systems
B.Sc in Agriculture	Crop Science
B.Sc in ENCS	Land Reclamation
B.Sc in ENCS	Wildlife and Rangeland Management
B.Sc in ENCS	Environmental Economics and Policy
B.Sc Honors	Food Science